

In dealing with this Scripture, and the subject of the so-called intermediate state, it is important that we should confine ourselves to the Word of God, and not go to Tradition. Yet, when nine out of ten believe what they have learned from Tradition, we have a thankless task, so far as pleasing man is concerned. We might give our own ideas as the employments, etc., of the departed, and man would deal leniently with us. But let us only put Gods Revelation against mans imagination, and then we shall be made to feel his wrath, and experience his opposition. -from The Rich Man and Lazarus In The Rich Man and Lazarus, Ethelbert William Bullinger offers his discussion of what happens to us after we die. Basing his analysis entirely on the words of the Bible-and not on Tradition, which he explains is cause only for great confusion-Bullinger explores what God actually reveals to us in Scripture concerning humanity in life, and in death, as well as the state and condition of the dead. First published in 1902, this work continues to inspire and enlighten readers of the Bible today. British clergyman ETHELBERT WILLIAM BULLINGER (1837-1913) was one of the most respected Bible scholars of the 19th century. He is author of numerous works including Commentary on Revelation, Great Cloud of Witnesses, and How to Enjoy the Bible.
